Govt Madras
Dt 8/6/1924

To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Bangalore.

Respected Sir,

We Jamedars working under Members of Council beg to bring the following few lines for your kind consideration:-

We have been given such costly dresses as to keep them on for three years together. We will have to be very careful in preserving them.

As you are aware Sir, that the rainy season is commencing and also the Birthday Season. We will have to wait for Members of Council outside the building and before Palace during rain also. By doing so we will spoil the dress we had to keep on for years.

For the same reason the Jamedars working under the Dewan Saheb have been given each one umbrella costing not more than Rs. 4/-. We beg the same concession may kindly be shown to us also.

We beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servants.

Bangalore,

2nd June 1924

6) It is ascertained that the umbrellas were issued in the D.O. for the Jamadars working there.

7) The Dewan's office will kindly put up the references

8) There are no papers in the Dewan's office. The umbrellas in question were issued by the D.O.
